

Macy's Herald Square invites you to join us for delicious demonstrations
by great chefs
and culinary experts!

When: Throughout the month at 1pm

Where: The Cellar Kitchen

Join us for a special month in The Cellar Kitchen that's about a lot more than great food! Meet our dietitians, nutritionists and educators and learn about culinary health and wellness, natural foods and healing, and sustainable living. Discover a community outreach "cookshop" dedicated to combatting childhood obesity and disease. And of course, there's fabulous cooking, from soul food and spiced-up "cha cha" cuisine to a chocolate tasting party and more. You'll even find out how to enjoy a gourmet wine tasting dinner in your home! Here's November's lineup of culinary greats:

Leticia Schwartz

Saturday, November 22

Chef Leticia Schwartz, a native of Brazil, graduated from the French Culinary Institute and teaches and writes about Brazilian cooking. Leticia is working on her first cookbook and is on a mission to make Brazilian cuisine shine on its own!
